Student club (Abhivyakti)

Many a times student has a talent but does not have confidence to showcase that talent. This club is designed for developing stage daring and ability to express thoughts among students. Hence this club is started with maximum participation from students in the form of attendees, organisers, presenters. It is expected that students will reduce anxiety about public speaking and will help to grow the confidence. The information shared in this activity will also be helpful for students to update themselves in different fields.

Activity of the Club:-

It is open for all students and conducted on every Saturday 3pm to 4 pm through virtual platform. However, on the day of event only presenters are allowed to attend so that each one is a presenter and spectator as well. Each presenter can present any form of piece of information such as psychological, philosophical, book review, funfacts, science fiction, personal experiences, physiotherapy updates, for minimum 2 min to maximum 5 mins. Maximum 10 participants are allowed in each event.

Working of the club:-

It has a teacher incharge and 6 volunteers to manage the administration of club. Each volunteer is assigned a duty in rotation to manage event. Thus for each event only two volunteers along with teacher incharge is present.

Duties of volunteers-

1. To collect entries for the event at least two days before.
2. To contact each participant to know the approximate time for presentation.
3. To prepare a schedule for presentation in a sequence.
4. On the day of event, to keep a time check and invite each presenter as per the schedule.
5. To prepare a composite report at the end and submit to teacher incharge.

Duties of teacher incharge -

1. To monitor overall working of the club.
2. To prepare overall report and submit it to principal.
3. To resolve any disputes, if happen.

“Maharashtra Day & International Labour Day” was observed by the NSS unit of D.V.V.P.F's College of Physiotherapy, Ahmednagar on 1st May 2022. This day was observed in order to create awareness about the struggle and the effort was taken for the formation of our state to general population. 'Maharashtra was formed on May 1, 1960. People of the Marathi-speaking state celebrate the day as Maharashtra Day or Maharashtra Diwas. Maharashtra Day celebrates not just statehood but the legacy and culture of the people of Maharashtra.' On this occasion, a speech was delivered by the students about our state & its culture. Followed by these speeches our respected Principal Sir Dr. Shyam Ganvir enlightened us with his words. The program was ended with a vote of thanks delivered by the NSS volunteer student.
